YHKCC SPORTS SUCCESS

YMCA of Hong Kong Christian College (YHKCC) sports teams are to be congratulated on some significant rugby, football and basketball wins. At the 2015-16 HKSSF Inter-School Rugby Sevens Championships at King's Park on December 5, 2015, the A/B Girls won the preliminary round of the All Hong Kong Rugby Sevens Competition; the A Boys came second in the Inter-School Rugby Championships (NT Region). On December 20, 2015, the school's A grade football team took out the Inter-School HKSSF Football Competition (Tsuen Wan and Islands District) for the second year in a row. Most recently, YHKCC's basketball teams won four trophies in the Islands District 3-on-3 Basketball Competition on January 10.

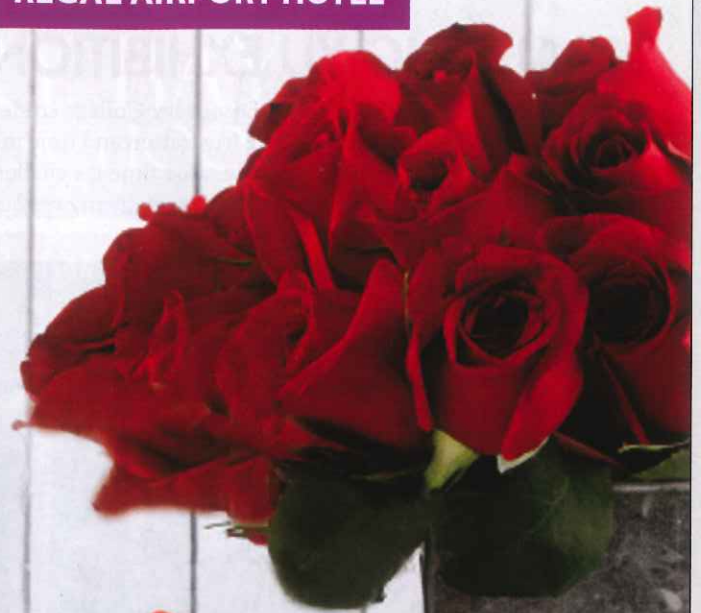

CHINESE INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT

Organised by the Leisure and Cultural Services Department, and sponsored by Islands District Council, the Chinese Instrumental Concert at DB Community Hall on January 10 was a hit with residents.

LARRY FEIGN BOOK SIGNING

Mui Wo cartoonist and author Larry Feign held a book signing at The Book Shop in Mui Wo on December 12, 2015 to celebrate the publication of his latest satirical work. AIEEYAAA! Learn Chinese the Hard Way is a satirical dictionary which pokes fun at life, love and culture clash in Hong Kong and China. It features cartoons and actual definitions in Mandarin, Cantonese, and English, plus an introduction on how not to learn Chinese. Find out more at www.larryfeign.com/aieeyaaa.

PICNIC IN THE PARK

After months of hard work from the organisers and uncertainty for the community, the much-anticipated Picnic in the Park lit up two stages once again on January 30. Festivalgoers from all over Lantau flocked to DB's Siena Park to enjoy 11 hours of live music and festival fun.

JAZZ FAMILY FEST

Jockey Club Sarah Roe School's annual fundraiser at Grappa's Cellar in Central saw over 40 musicians take to the stage January 22 and 23 for two nights of top entertainment. While the event was held to raise money for special needs children at the school, part of the proceeds went to local charities The Nesbitt Centre, The Rock Foundation and YES.
